

The Artistry of Zion Yakar

Zion Yakar's professional career began as an opera singer. He is a graduate of the National Conservatory of Music "Juiseppe" Verdi in Milan, Italy. His passion for painting developed during the 1970's after visiting his hometown of Tel-Aviv where he met his childhood friend Shuki Eli, a prominent artist.

He left for South Africa in 1979 to lecture music at the University of Durban. Grounded in his faith, he served the Jewish community as Cantor. Zion Yakar's numerous performances on television, radio, recitals, exhibits, and symphonic concerts provided him with well-deserved celebrity status.

In 1982, he responded to a call from a congregation in Brussels, Belgium to serve as Cantor of the Monumental Great Synagogue of Brussels. There he became a member of the Academy of Fine Arts, "Marius Renard." He enjoyed both spiritual growth and professional success until leaving for the United States in 1987. He presently resides in Pomona, NY and Albuquerque, NM.
